

KWILT AND PETZILA PARTNER TO DELIVER EASIEST WAY TO SHARE CHERISHED PET PHOTOS

SAN JOSE – Sept. 23, 2015 – Kwilt, maker of KwiltKeys and award-winning mobile media solutions innovator, and Petzila, the leader in Internet of Things (IoT) pet solutions, today announced a partnership to allow users of the Petzi Treat Cam to share pet photos instantly from their iPhones.

KwiltKeys will now support pictures from the Petzi Treat Cam as a live photo source for direct sharing right from the mobile photo keyboard. Petzi Treat Cam users will now be able to share their pets' photos to their preferred social networks seamlessly, anytime and from anywhere. The Petzi Treat Cam lets people ('see') video, ('speak') audio, ('snap') take pictures and ('treat') dispense treats to their pets remotely using any Internet enabled device.

"We are thrilled to partner with Petzila, who have created a dynamic platform where the star is your beloved pet," said Marc-Antoine Benglia, CEO and Co-Founder of Kwilt. "The Petzi Treat Cam is one of the most influential IoT products today and a continuous source of great pictures – Petzila is the perfect companion to KwiltKeys!"

KwiltKeys is the fastest and easiest way to share any photos from any source, including the camera roll, Instagram, Facebook, Dropbox, Flickr, Photobucket, Google+ and more all in one place right at their fingertips.

"One of the driving forces behind the success of the Petzi Treat Cam is the fact people love taking and sharing pics of their pets," said David Clark CEO of Petzila. "Our partnership with Kwilt now means our users can share these pics more widely and easier than ever before."

The Kwilt and Petzila partnership directly follows the announcement of KwiltKeys' public launch on Monday, September 21, 2015.
